Highway litter detracts from the natural beauty of the state, and help keep the state clean by disposing of trash properly.

Unless otherwise posted, right turns permitted on a red light after a full stop. "U" allowed except across a painted median or double yellow line. Some communities prohibit U-turns within city limits.

Do not pass when the solid yellow line is in your lane. Lane changes, slowing or other maneuvers must be signaled at least three seconds in advance.

Utah speed limits are strictly enforced. The maximum speed limit in Utah is 55 MPH on rural Interstate Highways where it is posted. Please obey all posted speed limits.

Any traffic accident involving death, injury or damage of $400 or more must be reported immediately to law enforcement.

Utah has a no-fault insurance law that requires all motorists to carry adequate insurance. If you are insured properly in your state of residence, you will be covered adequately in Utah.

Mountain driving can be very hazardous during heavy snowstorms, particularly on mountain passes. Some routes most commonly affected are:

US-89, Logan Canyon NE of Logan
US-89 and 91, NE of Brigham City
I-80, Parleys Canyon east of Salt Lake
US-40, Daniels Canyon SE of Heber
US-6, Soldier Summit SE of Provo
US-191 between Duchesne and Helper
U-31 between Fairview and Huntington
U-14 between Cedar City and US-89

A 24-hour road condition recording reached in the Salt Lake City area 1 964-6000. Within Utah but outside the City area the number is (800) 492-24

Commercial vehicles must have tire possession during winter mths.

Motorists traveling in a vehicle with a four-wheel drive must have mounted snow tires or chain drive wheels from November 1 through November 31. All-season tires qualify if they have a snow rating from the manufacturer.

Studded snow tires are only permitted on highways from October 15 through April 15.
